

Marine Cuisine®

The Complete MAGMA® Grill Guide & Cookbook

This guide was written for the many thousands of amateur chefs who own an all stainless steel Magma Marine Kettle® or Gourmet Series Grill.

More than just a cookbook, Marine Cuisine® is a complete boater's grill guide for preparing and cooking delicious meals using a minimum of ingredients.

The Magma Grills® are superior cooking instruments, that has been engineered specifically to perform when exposed to wind and wetness out on the water. Those of you who have experienced cooking with an all stainless steel Magma® Grill will acknowledge that cooking times are really much faster while using less fuel than conventional grills.

If you want to try cooking something a little more challenging than hot dogs, Marine Cuisine® is the perfect companion.
